

Sr. No. 2.4: Students participating in NSS/NCC/ Rangers and Rovers/ Clubs

Students actively engage in extracurricular organisations such as the National Service Scheme (NSS), Rangers and Rovers, Road Safety Club, Red Ribbon Club, and Eco Club, which play a vital role in student development and outreach. These organisations provide opportunities for leadership, social service, teamwork, and personal growth.

i. National Service Scheme (NSS)

The NSS unit organised various social awareness programs within the college premises, including a cleanliness drive, a plantation initiative, an anti-drug awareness rally, and more.

II. Rovers and Rangers

The college's Rover and Rangers Unit organised various activities to build leadership, community service, and social responsibility among students. During these sessions, members engaged in cleanliness drives, tree plantation initiatives, and awareness campaigns focused on health, environmental issues, and gender equality.

II. Road Safety Club

The college's Road Safety Club organised various activities to build leadership, community service, and social responsibility among students. During these sessions, members engaged in an awareness rally on road safety and distributed pamphlets on traffic rules to drivers and locals.
